Case No. 10-3305-CV-S-RED

ORDER

Before the Court is Plaintiff's Motion for Declaration of Law (Doc. 136) wherein Plaintiff requests the Court to declare that the Defendants' defense that his disability was causing customers to be dissatisfied with the company's service is insufficient to establish the affirmative defense of "bona fide occupational qualification." Defendants have filed no opposition.

In support of Plaintiff's request, Plaintiff cites Diaz v. Pan American World Airways, Inc., 442 F.2d 385 (5th Cir. 1971) and a video posted on the website www.ada.gov. The video is not precedent legal authority for this Court and the Diaz case is from a different circuit. In addition, the Diaz case concerns a fact situation which is distinguished from the facts of this case and therefore is not an appropriate case for a "declaration of law" that would effectively rule on an issue in this case. Accordingly, this Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion for Declaration of Law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: October 4, 2011
